

Is talking difficult for you?

New drop-in sessions in Warrington for people living with aphasia in the North West

Meet other people with aphasia

Relax and be yourself – you don't have to talk

Find support

Have fun

About aphasia

Aphasia is a communication disability, which usually occurs following stroke or head injury. Each person with aphasia experiences it differently. Some people cannot speak at all. Some people have just a few words. Others may have difficulty reading, writing or using numbers.

About Connect

Connect is a charity for people living with aphasia. At Connect, we work alongside people with aphasia and their families to develop communication and rebuild confidence.

People with aphasia are involved in everything we do at Connect, acting as trustees, staff members, advisors and volunteers. Our mission is to improve the lives of people living with aphasia, by helping them to re-connect with life.

“There is a huge gap between leaving hospital and learning to lead a ‘normal’ life again. I couldn’t have done it without Connect.”

About drop-in

What happens at drop-in?

Sessions are led by people with aphasia and supported by trained volunteers. Relax over tea and coffee, exchange ideas, and meet people who understand.

How many people will be there?

The number will vary each time, but from five to 35!

Do I have to stay for the whole drop-in?

No, drop-in is informal and you can stay as long as you wish. There is no commitment to attend every time either.

I work with people with aphasia. Can I refer them to drop-in?

Yes. Please get in touch using the details on the reverse of this leaflet.

Can I refer my partner, friend or family member to drop-in?

Yes, and feel free to come along too.

Do I need to let you know that I will be attending drop-in?

No, but if you'd like to let us know that you are coming, it helps us make arrangements. Contact details are on the reverse of the leaflet.

Do I need to pay?

No. All of Connect's activities are free to attend, but as a charity we always welcome donations.

“Drop-in, it’s great - not like hospital. Not like other places, it’s informal. People know what it [aphasia] is like.”
